

6516205790.txt

XM allows me to get my traffic and weather in a timely fashion with out wading through numerous commercials. It also gives me the ability to listen to traffic to other cities that I travel to. I think it is quite unfair that I can get the weather channel on my home satellite, but not on my car satellite. I spend money each month so I do not have to listen to commercials, please don't force me to go back to that.